NEW HAVEN PROBE DRAWS TO A CLOSE

Inquiry Will Be Completed One Day Next Week

ATTORNEY ON STAND

Walter D. Hines, a Lawyer for the New Haven, Was a Witness Before Inter-State Commerce Commission.

Washington, June 5.—There were indications at the conclusion of today's session of the Inter-State Commerce Commission's inquiry into the affairs of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad that the investigation would be completed soon, perhaps one day next week.

Walter D. Hines, an attorney for the New Haven, at the afternoon hearing placed several of the road's officials on the stand and when adjournment was taken Commissioner McChord announced that he wanted to conclude this phase of the case tomorrow. Mr. Hines said the only other witness he wanted heard was L. S. Miller, president of the New York, West Chester & Boston Railway.

Lewis Cass Ledyard, concluding the statement he began yesterday, said he did not consider the directors of the New Haven were "dummies" and that he had often met J. Pierpont Morgan at meetings.

T. DeWitt Cuyler, a New Haven director on the stand, said meetings of the board were conducted in a regular, orderly and careful manner. Arthur E. Clark, secretary of the New Haven, identified and read minutes of directors, and committee meetings. Figures designed to show that between June 30th, 1901, and June 30th, 1902, the profit and loss surplus of the New Haven had decreased only about $1,300,000, were read by Julian M. Tomlinson, general auditor of the road.

Mellen's Letter Read.

J. W. H. Crim, attorney for former President Mellen, read into the record Mr. Mellen's much discussed letter to former United States Attorney Wise, at New York, assuming responsibility for the Grand Trunk deal under which Mellen was indicted. Mellen testified he took the responsibility to shield the late J. Pierpont Morgan.

Mr. Ledyard yesterday vigorously contradicted that contention. Mr. Crim merely read the letter and asked Mr. Ledyard if it accorded with his recollection and Mr. Ledyard replied that it did not.

Mr. Ledyard told of Mr. Mellen telling him that he had heard of some conferences Mr. Morgan had with officials of the Grand Trunk and asked him to inquire of Mr. Morgan if he was worried about Grand Trunk matters.

"I asked Mr. Morgan if he was worried over Grand Trunk affairs, and he said, 'not a bit'."

"Did Mr. Mellen send the letter the same day he wrote it?"

"My impression is he called in the stenographer, dictated the letter and the stenographer brought it back and Mr. Mellen made a few corrections. I believe he said he was sending it right along by messenger."

"Your relations with Mr. Morgan were quite intimate. You made yachting trips with him and you drew his will and were made one of his executors?" Mr. Folk asked.

"That is correct."

Often Opposed Mr. Morgan.

Mr. Ledyard said he often opposed Mr. Morgan and had done so in the New Haven board.

"Did you oppose him enough to make him mad?"

"I never hesitated to tell him plainly what I thought."

"Were the Connecticut directors largely dummies?" Mr. Folk asked.

"I should not say that," Mr. Ledyard replied. "Mr. Mellen certainly was not a dummy. Charles F. Brooker was not. Mr. Brush was a most aggressive and obstinate old man. Mr. Whittemore was an able man of large interests. Mr. Frank Brewster was a young man, energetic man and who asked many question. Henry K. McHarg was a man of large interests."

Mr. Ledyard expressed high regard for Laurence Minot. He said James S. Melton never impressed him as having a great knowledge of railroad affairs.

He said John L. Billiard was practically a stranger to him. He did not recall that Mr. Billiard said much, although he attended the meetings regularly. He said Edward Milligan, when he first became a member of the board showed a desire to know about things that were going on and never hesitated to speak out in meetings, which was rather unusual in a Connecticut director.

George F. Baker, Mr. Ledyard said, had not been particularly active during the time he, Mr. Ledyard, was on the board. Mr. Ledyard said J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., was not a director during his membership. Judge A. Heaton Robertson, he stated, was prominent in politics and a man of high standing.

Mr. Ledyard said Mr. Billiard's purchase of Boston & Maine stock was outright. When asked by Mr. Folk if he did not regard Billiard's profit on the stock as excessive, Mr. Ledyard replied:

"Yes, I told Mr. Mellen it was an outrageous profit for a man to make who had bought the stock as a friend of the road."

Knew Nothing of Checks.

Mr. Ledyard was shown two checks of the New England Navigation Company for $1,000,000 issued to Mr. Billiard. He said he knew nothing of these checks, but that he recognized the signatures of the vice president

MUNITIONS OF WAR LAND AT TAMPICO

No Interference With Schooner From Any Source.

CARGO FOR CARRANZA

Schooner Sunshine Carried Cargo Ammunition to Rebel Forces From Galveston—Situation May Become Complicated.

Washington, June 5.—Information reaching Washington late today that the American schooner Sunshine, from Galveston, had landed ammunition at Tampico, for the Mexican Constitutionalists without interference on the part of the United States or the Huerta government was received in official quarters here without comment. State and Navy Department officials declined to verify the report, but from other sources it was learned that the presence of the "Sunshine" off Tampico with arms aboard had been known to the Washington government for several days.

In view of the fact that there has been considerable apprehension regarding the attitude the United States might take toward the landing of ammunition at this Mexican port, the delivery of the munitions without interference, was regarded with significance.

With the Cuban steamer Antilla en route to Tampico with arms consigned to Carranza's forces, there has been much speculation as to what the United States would do, if the Huerta government should attempt to blockade the port.

Every indication tonight, however, was that the United States would maintain its previously announced position that Tampico was an open port. Admiral Badger yesterday was asked to keep watch upon Huerta gunboats at Puerto Mexico and Alvarado.

Tonight there had been no report to the Navy Department that the boats had made any move toward Tampico.

No Protest Filed.

There have been widespread reports that the South American mediators had protested against the United States permitting the delivery of ammunition to the Constitutionalists at Tampico. Secretary Bryan tonight declared, however, that the State Department had received no protest. He also denied reports that Mr. Riano, the Spanish ambassador, who represents the interests of Gen. Huerta in the United States, had protested.

Foreign diplomats in Washington today displayed great interest in the situation. Should Huerta decide to attempt to stop the delivery of ammunition aboard the Cuban ship Antilla, international law requires that notice of blockade be given all foreign powers. International law also stipulates that a blockade, to be recognized by foreign powers, must be effective.

In diplomatic circles the belief is general that a decision on the part of the United States to prevent a blockade would result in many complications.

No messages relating to mediation were received at the Constitutionalist headquarters here from Gen. Carranza.

Nigara Falls, Ont., June 5.—Still without any intimation of what General Carranza's answer would be on the question of Constitutionalist representation here, the South American mediators and the American and Mexican delegates spent their time today working out details of the general peace plan.

There were no conferences. The American delegates remained on the American side studying various phases of the stuation. They are familiarizing themselves with data Washington is sending about individuals mentioned for the new provisional government.

All principals were expecting to hear some definite word from the Constitutionalists for there can be no definite developments until their intentions are known.

The general attitude here in regard to the expected reply from General Carranza, is a mixture of doubt and hope.

In some quarters there was more or less skepticism manifested. It was evident some believed Carranza's response would be negative, but it was hoped it would leave open the door for continued correspondence. The question which aroused interest here today was when Carranza, who is reported en route from Durango to Saltillo, would reach the later city he is preparing to establish his provisional government.

SHOT AT MAYOR OF COLUMBIA.

T. B. Roach Must Pay Heavy Fine or Spend Two Years in Jail.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—Convicted of the charge of shooting at Lewis A. Griffith, mayor of Columbia, T. B. Roach, member of the Richland county dispensary board, today was sentenced to serve two years in prison or pay a fine of $500. The shot, which went wild, was fired during an altercation between Dr. Griffith and C. C. Stanley, during the campaign preceding the primary in which Dr. Griffith was nominated for mayor. Roach claimed that the shot was accidental.

G. POPE IRBY A SUICIDE.

Charlston, S. C., June 5.—G. Pope Irby, son of former United States Senator John L. M. Irby, of South Carolina, today shot and killed himself at his home on a farm 18 miles from here, according to the coroner's verdict. The wounds were inflicted with buckshot. No reason for the act is known. Irby was 32 years old.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS AT NAVAL ACADAMY

Wilson Addresses. Class of Graduating Officers.

TRUSTS WAR IS OVER

Refers to the American Army and Navy as the Instruments of Civilization and Not of Aggression—Self Control.

Annapolis, Md., June 5.—"I pray God it may not be necessary for our boys at Vera Cruz to use any more force," declared President Wilson today in an address to graduates of the Naval Academy. He spoke before a gathering of more than 5,000 people, made up largely of present and future officers of the Navy. The President referred to the American Army and Navy as "the instruments of civilization, not the instruments of aggression."

"Other nations have been strong," he said, "other nations have piled wealth as high as the sky, but they have come to disgrace because they used their force and their wealth for the oppression of mankind and their own aggrandizement and America will not bring glory to herself but disgrace by following the beaten paths of history. We must strike out on a new path."

President Wilson said in part:

"It ought to be one of your thoughts all the time that you are sample Americans, not merely navy men, not merely sample soldiers, and that you have the point of view of America with regard to her navy and her army that she is using them as the instrument of civilization, not as the instruments of aggression. The idea of America is to serve humanity, and every time you let the Stars and Stripes free to the wind you ought to realize that you are not on an errand of conquest, but on an errand of service.

"What do you think is the lasting impression that those boys down at Vera Cruz are going to leave? They have had to use some force; I pray God it may not be necessary for them to use any more, but do you think that the way they fought is going to be the most lasting impression?

"The things that show the moral compulsions of the human conscience, those are the things by which we have been building up civilization. The lasting impression that those boys are to leave is the exercise of self control."

The President praised Admiral Fletcher, saying he had the qualities of a statesman.

The President left Annapolis this afternoon on board the Mayflower for Washington. He expects to arrive there tomorrow morning.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BATTLE OF THE CRATER

To Be Celebrated at Petesburg in July

Conflict Was the Most Notable of the Civil War—Delayed the Surrender of the Confederate Soldiers Over a Year.

Petersburg, Va., June 5.—Survivors of the battle of the Crater, which took place on the outskirts of Petersburg July 30th, 1864, will be invited to participate in the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the engagement, which will be held here July 30th, under the auspices of A. P. Hill Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Union and Confederate veterans from all parts of the United States will attend.

President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan, Oscar Underwood and Champ Clark will be invited to deliver the principal addresses. A banquet to the survivors will be the chief feature of the evening programme, when incidents of the engagement will be recounted by men who participated in the battle.

The conflict was the most notable in the Virginia campaign, as it delayed the surrender of the Confederate troops for nearly a year. General Grant's men drove a tunnel six hundred feet long beneath a hill on which Confederate forces were massed and planted 8,000 pounds of powder.

When this was exploded, 274 Confederates were killed, but the forces in gray under the late Gen. Mahone, of this city, repulsed the four divisions of Grant's army, with casualties of 4,400 Federal and 922 Confederate dead.

A bill providing for the creation of a national park at the site of the battle was approved by the House Committee on Military Affairs this week.

NEGRO KILLED AT REIDSVILLE.

Shot to Death by Express Agent Deputized.

Charlotte, N. C., June 5.—Deputized and provided with a gun by an exhausted chief of police, Kearns R. Thompson, express agent, shot and killed a negro, Charles Hurba, who, with a knife and a brick, resisted arrest today at Reidsville, says a special from that place tonight.

DECK IS CLEARED FOR TOLLS REPEAL

Will Conclude Debate on Bill in Senate Today

REACH VOTE MONDAY

Leaders Are Certain of Completing All Amendments and the Bill During the Coming Week. Before Senate.

Washington, June 5.—The Senate today finally cleared the decks for a vote on the tolls exemption repeal and leaders were hopeful that general debate might be closed tomorrow and the bill and all the amendments proposed to it disposed of early next week. After listening all day to speches on subject far removed from tolls, the Senate recessed until tomorrow when the exemption bill will come up automatically.

If debate is closed tomorrow the way will be open for a vote on the amendments Monday, and it was believed tonight the bill itself might be reached some time Tuesday.

Although the tolls bill was technically before the Senate, it was not discussed at all today and the announcement tonight that the measure would take precedence of all other business tomorrow led to a sharp interchange between Senators Owen and Gallinger on the need of a Senate rule to limit debate.

Another complication was added to the situation in the Senate today, however, when Senator Sutherland introduced, as an amendment to the tolls repeal bill, his resolution for arbitration.

Its appearance as an amendment means that it must be voted on before the bill itself.

President Wilson is understood to be unwilling to arbitrate before the repeal bill is passed and many Senators, who are standing with the President, but who favor arbitration, are in quandary.

HEAR NEW MOTION IN FRANK MURDER TRIAL

Defense Claims Constitutional Rights Violated

Motion Asks That Verdict of Guilty Against Frank Be Annuled on Grounds That Defendant Was Not in Court Room.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—Filing of demurrers by the State and arguments by counsel for the defense marked the hearing here today on the motion to annul the verdict of guilty and sentence of death returned in the case of Leo Frank, pencil factory superintendent, charged with killing Mary Phagan, the 14 year old factory girl.

Annulment of the verdict is asked on the ground that the constitutional rights of the defendant were violated when he was allowed to be absent from the court room when the verdict as returned Representations made to Judge L. S. Roan, presiding at the trial that a demonstration against the defendant was possible if a verdict of acquittal was returned, caused the action to be taken.

When the hearing was begun today before Superior Judge Benjamin R. Hill, two demurrers were filed by Solicitor General M. Dorsey, chief of the State's legal forces One contended that there was no defect in the court record. The other dealt chiefly with the allegation that it was impossible for Frank to have a fair trial on account of the state of public feeling at the time.

Reading of the demurrers and citations of authorities by Solicitor General Dorsey occupied the morning session. The session this afternoon was devoted to arguments by Frank's counsel against the demurrers, in which various court decisions on the rights of accused were cited.

The hearing will be continued tomorrow.

FOR COAST GUARD BILL

Solicitor Abernathy in Washington Working for Its Passage—Prospects Very Bright.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 5.—C. L. Abernathy, of Beaufort, the recently re-nominated solicitor, arrived here today, and is doing everything in his power to have the House take favorable action upon the Coast Guard bill, which would p lace the Life-Saving service on a par with the Naval men.

The measure has already passed the Senate, has been reported favorably by the House committee, and is now on the House calendar. It is believed here that it is sure to pass that branch of Congress and be signed by the President before the present session adjourns.

Mr. Abernathy has an engagement with Congressman Stephens, of New Hampshire, tomorrow morning. Mr. Stephens is interested in the bill.

Findlay Williamson has resigned as postmaster of Burlington. Postmaster Williamson stated that he could not give the proper time to the office without neglecting his private business, which he could not afford to do.

Sam Dellinger, of Franklinton, and E. S. Reid, of Charlotte, have been appointed assistants in the Fish laboratory at Beaufort.

J. B. Underwood, of Fayetteville, who has been on a Western trip, spent the day here.

Charles A. Bailey and bride, of Jamesville, are here on their honeymoon.

LANGLEY'S FOLLY FLIES, JUSTIFYING INVENTOR AT WHOM WORLD LAUGHED

TWO VIEWS OF LANGLEY'S FOLLY THAT NOW FLIES.

Hammondsport, N. Y., June 5.—Glenn H. Curtiss has made several short flights with "Langley's Folly," the airship constructed more than a decade ago by the Washington scientist, at whom the world smiled over his failure. Mr. Curtiss explained that the present experiments were in the nature of preliminary tests, and that no official demonstrations would be made until the motor was adjusted.

GAVE SENSATIONAL EVIDENCE AT TRIAL

Of Mme Schumann-Heink's Suit for Divorce

Husband Visited Flat of Mrs. Dean Often, Is the Testimony of Detectives Who Shadowed Man for Opera Singer.

Chicago, June 5.—Alleged visits of William Rapp, Jr., to the apartments of Mrs. Katherine Dean, of New York, named as co-respondent in Mme. Schumann-Heink's suit for divorce from Rapp were detailed today in several depositions read in court. These calls were made at all hours, and some continued until daylight, according to the affidavits.

The association of Rapp and Mrs. Dean were sworn to by detectives, who said they trailed them to apartments on Home street, New York, by the janitor of the building, by Rapp's landlady, and by Arthur W. Shaw, a negro messenger.

Eugene Rossi, a detective, said he began to shadow Rapp in December, 1912.

"The first time I saw Rapp, he met a woman on 34th street, and they both went to 37 Home street," he said.

"Neither came out during the night."

Rossi said he followed Rapp and Mrs. Dean on a shopping tour, and told of seeing Rapp enter her apartment with his own key.

"He went there with a black satchel," said the detective, "and next morning emerged with a suit case."

Josephine Goldsmith, at whose home Rapp roomed from August, 1912, to February, 1913, deposed that "he never was away for more than a night or two at a time."

The court today ruled that questions concerning the earlier marriages of the singer would not be permitted.

Effort was made yesterday to prove by her daughter, Marie, that Schumann was only the "stage name" of her first husband.

Mme. Schumann-Heink said she almost had abandoned hope that the trial would be completed in time to permit her to sing at the Wagnerian Festival at Bayreuth, Germany, June 15th. Counsel for Rapp asserted several days would be consumed in the introduction of evidence by the defense.

H. C. L. AT VERA CRUZ.

Funston to Appoint Commission to Investigate Increasin- Costs.

Vera Cruz, June 5.—Brigadier General Funston announced today that he contemplates appointing a commission of Mexican residents and American army officers to investigate the increased cost of living in Vera Cruz.

Complaints have reached the General that wholesale dealers and importers have been squeezing the retail dealers and hotel keepers.

REED TAKES SHOT AT "CALAMITY HOWLERS"

Senator From Missouri DendsDemocratic Party

Publicly Calls Attention of Attorney General to the General Motors Company as a "Criminal Trust."

Washington, June 5.—A defense of the legislative policy of the Democratic party since it assumed control of the national administration and a bitter denunciation of "calamity howlers" and those who speak of business depression, and lay it at Democracy's door, marked a speech in the Senate today by Senator Reed, of Missouri.

"The Democratic party seems to be in this situation at the present time," said Senator Reed. "If it passes a bill restoring confidence to the financial situation and the stock market responds, the gentlemen on the other side of the aisle rise up and roll their eyes and froth at the mouth in a fine frenzy, and declare it has surrendered itself to the great financial interests. But if a trust or other combination sets up a wail, we are immediately denounced as enemies of all legitimate business."

The Senator began with an attack on the General Motors Company and one of its subsidiaries, whose president recently criticised Congress in a letter appearing in the Congressional Record.

Senator Reed declared the motors company was "a criminal trust" and an unlawful combination.

"I am publicly calling the attention of the Attorney General of the United States to this company," the Senator said, and asking him to investigate and take the necessary steps for its dissolution."

Senator Reed quoted stock market quotations to show that business is increasing, and that stocks are higher and sales greater than a year ago.

Senators Smith and Townsend, of Michigan, Republicans, answered Senator Reed.

"This country is suffering from too much ill-digested and speculative legislation," said Senator Townsend.

DENY REPORT THAT TAMPICO HAD BEEN TAKEN BY FLEET

Navy Department Issues Prompt Denial to Unfounded Reports.

Washington, June 5.—Reports circulated here today that Rear Admiral Badger, under orders from Washington, had seized the customs house at Tampico, caused the Navy Department to issue the following official bulletin:

"In reference to the sensational and utterly unfounded report circulated this afternoon, the department desires to positively deny that any orders have been issued to take the port of Tampico, or any other port; nor is any such movement in contemplation."

TRACHOMA IN VIRGINIA.

Government Investigation Shows Disease Scattered Over State.

Washington, June 5.—Trachoma is widely prevalent in West Virginia and in Southwestern Virginia, according to the Public Health Service, in a report today in its investigations of the disease in these States.

Inspections were made by Public Health Service officers in twenty-three counties in West Virginia, when 20,848 persons, mostly school children, were examined, among whom 340 cases of trachoma were found. Of the 7,802 persons examined in ten counties in Virginia, 108 had the disease.

Systematic efforts to suppress the disease are urged.

HOUSE PASSES ALL ANTI-TRUST BILLS

Railroad Capitalization Bill Was the Last.

LARGE MAJORITY VOTE

Inter-State Trade Commission Bill Passed Without a Record Vote. Better Prospects for an Early Adjournment.

Washington, June 5.—All three bills on the Administration Trust legislation programme passed the House late today and were sent to the Senate for action. Opposition melted away when the final test came and the voting went through quickly and without incident. The Covington inter-State trade commission bill was passed without a record vote; the Clayton Omnibus anti-trust measure received 275 votes to 54 against it, and the vote on the Rayburn railroad capitalization bill was 325 to 12.

Action on the trust bills came rather unexpectedly. The three measures had been agreed to in "committee of the whole," the Rayburn bill, as amended by the committee, being completed late today.

When the trade commission bill came before the House for a final vote, Progressive Leader Murdock moved that it be sent back to the Inter-State Commerce committee with instructions to report the Murdock bill as a substitute. This was rejected 151 to 19 and the pending bill was passed without a roll call. Then the votes on the other two measures were taken in rapid succession. Representative White, of Ohio, was the only Democrat to vote against the Clayton bill and all the Progressives voted for it except Representative Chandler, of New York. Forty-three Republicans and 16 Progressives joined the majority in supporting the measure.

Close regulation and control of the stocks and bonds of railroads by the Inter-State Commerce Commission is proposed by a substitute for the Rayburn bill prepared by the House Inter-State and Foreign Commerce committee and considered by the House as the last measure of the administration anti-trust programme. The committee divided the Rayburn measure into two sections in order that one might stand if the constitutionality of the other failed in the courts. The bill makes it unlawful for any common carrier to issue stocks, bonds, notes or evidences of indebtedness without the approval of the commission.

Broadens Powers.

The bill broadens the powers of the commission to require information from railroads and other common carriers and prescribes an elaborate system of reports. The commission would be authorized by the bill to require periodical or special reports on the financial condition of railroads, balanced statements of receipts, and expenditures in relation to capital accounts, and all other financial transactions.

Before issuing stocks or bonds, the bill would require railroads to file with the Commission a certificate of notification, showing in detail the character of the securities, the purposes for which they are to be issued and the disposition to be made of them. Such certificates the bill makes public record and open to inspection. The bill would give the Commission wide authority for the examination of the books of railroads and would provide penalties for the concealing of information from the Commission.

Giving the Commission authority to supervise issues of securities the bill said:

"It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the act to regulate commerce, to issue any capital stock or certificate of stock or any bond or other evidence of indebtedness or to assume any obligation as lessor, guarantor, or surety for the securities of any person, natural or artificial, even though permitted by the authority creating the carrier corporation, except for some purpose within its corporate powers necessary to the proper performance of its service for the public and not tending to impair the financial ability of the carrier to discharge its duty to the public."

The Trade Commission Bill.

The Covington Trade Commission bill, the first measure on the administration anti-trust programme as considered in the House, would create a commission with broad inquisitorial powers over corporations engaged in inter-State commerce. The bill would turn over to a commission of three members the power now held by the Bureau of Corporations in the Department of Commerce, and confer on the commission additional powers.

The bill provides for the appointment of three commissioners, no more than two of one political party, by the President. The commissioners would serve six years at $10,000, and employ a secretary at $5,000. The commissioners would be barred from engaging in any other vocation while serving.

Upon the direction of the President, the Attorney General or either House of Congress, the commission would be authorized to investigate and report the facts relating to any alleged violation of the anti-trust laws. The commission would also recommend possible readjustments of the business of corporations so investigated in order that they might conduct their business in accordance with the law. When the commission finds information as to any "unfair competition or practice in commerce, not necessarily constituting a violation of the law," it is called upon to report to the President and aid him in making recommendations to Congress for remedial legislation.

CITY LEAGUE GAMES THIS AFTERNOON

Two Rousing Big Games Will be Battled to The Finish.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, baseball fans will have an opportunity to witness what is heeraded as "the bottest baseball game ever pulled off in Wilmington," between Emerson's Brigade Boys, one of the scrappiest teams in the League, and Watters' Light Infantry Demons. Anyone who has seen these teams in action know what to expect when they clash in the first game of the double header this afternoon.

Three weeks ago the Demons put it over the Schappers, and still smarting over said licking, the Brigadiers are coming back with a sworn vengeance to slip one over on the Demons. "Happy Ned," their star twirler, is going strong now, and pitched one of his best games last Saturday. Burnett, their new first sacker, played a whirlwind game last Saturday, while Morton, a new man, will make their infield the strongest in the League.

The Demons, jubilant over their defeat of the Y. M. C. A. last Saturday, promise to be worthy foes, and are confident of making the Brigade boys sit up and take their nourishment like a man. Shaw, their new twirler, bids fair to become a star of the first constellation, as he has a puzzling delivery that is strange to the boys, and has a good assortment of curves in his vocabulary. Being a left-hander and possessing many traits of a good twirler, he is likely to cause trouble with the Scrappers this afternoon. All who witness this game are promised one with thrills throughout.

The second game, between the Y. M. C. A. and the Giants will begin at 5 o'clock. The "Y" team has received from its first defeat last Saturday, and will go into the game strengthened to play the game of their lives. Tracy has been signed up and will prove a valuable acquisition to their forces. "Pomp" Green has recovered his injury sustained in the last game, and will be on the mound to dish up his puzzling spit ball and fast in-shoots. A look at the batting averages will show that the Y. M. C. A. are the candy kids when it comes to driving the pill to all corners of the lot, and the Heavy Hitters expect to fatten their already corpulent averages in today's game.

Davis and his Giants are getting better all the time. With Shepard on the mount and kite behind the bat playing in old time form, they are picking up every day and Davis says "We'll be there and then watch us steam."

Capacity crowds should grace the Sunset Park stands to witness these games, the best city league games ever produced in Wilmington, something that is right up with the professional baseball of many towns. (a lot better than some of the Carolina League games, believe us.)

A DAILY HOME RUN

JACK ONSLOW.

Jack Onslow, of the Providence Grays, was sought by the Federals. They sent him transportation to Indianapolis and he went to see what they wanted. He thus tells his experience:

"I sauntered into the office of the Indianapolis club and there met Bill Phillips, manager of the team, and Gates, the league's lawyer.

"'So you're Onslow, of the Providence club, formerly with Detroit,' said Gates. 'Well, here is the contract. I made it out for three years. Just sign your name right here.'

"He tossed the stuff to me so fact I nearly lost my breath. 'Just wait a minutes there, mister,' I said, 'what's your hurry?'

"'That's the way with you fellows,' he said. 'We are giving you the greatest chance you ever had to get the money and you want a lot of explanations. One would think you boys were taking a gamble. Why, we are the ones who are gambling, and we can't lose.'

"He didn't even want to let me look over the contract, and his rushing tactics got me sore. 'So we ball players don't take any gambling chances, eh?' I said. 'Well suppose your league blows up? You are a lawyer and you'll go back at the job and make a pot of money probably. But what will become of us if you bust? We will be barred from organized ball, and then where will we get off?'

"I picked up my hat and left the office without any more conversation, but they gave it out that I had signed. That's the last I ever saw of them."

Honolulu, June 5.—The Honolulu board of health has received a request from the Federal health authorities at Washington for permission to send John R. Early, the alleged leper, to Molakai. Local opposition to the proposed plan has been aroused and it is doubtful if Early's transfer to Hawaii will be permitted. On June 2nd, Early announced his presence in a Washington hotel at which Vice President Marshall lives. He escaped from the quarantine station at Port Townsend, Wash., on May 18th.

Age and Youth Play For Championship

PERRY ADAIR MEETS NELSON WHITNEY IN FINAL PLAY OF GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Memphis, Tenn., June 4.—Perry Adair, a 15-year-old Atlanta youth, will meet Nelson Whitney, veteran of many a hard-fought tournament fight and three times amateur champion of the South, in the final round tomorrow for the 1914 championship of the Southern Golf Association. Adair won his match in the semi-finals today over George V. Rotan, of Waco, State champion of Texas, 4 up and 3 to play, and Whitney, holder of the Southern title, disposed of Louis Jacoby, of Dallas, Texas, by the same score.

The playing of the youthful Georgian over Rotan today was sensational. He drove with the accuracy of a veteran. His approach shots were almost professional and his putting was consistent. On the other hand, Rotan, who towered over his opponent in stature and almost doubled him in years, was plainly off his play. He hooked his approach shot repeatedly and in putting was weak.

In the other match Whitney was forced to extend himself only once when Jacoby showed a flash during afternoon. The New Orleans man was seldom in danger. The Dallas man was off on his approach shots, some falling short and others overrunning.

Large galleries followed both matches, with probably the largest crowd watching the play of Adair and Rotan. When the match ended on the 15th hole, Adair's father, George W. Adair, took the boy on his shoulders and the crowd gave lusty hurrahs for the plucky youngster, the women leading in the cheering.

THEATRICAL

That J. Warren Kerrigan is capable of carrying off any role under the sun, has been boasted by one of his admirers, and this seems likely as this star of the screen will today be seen at the popular photoplay house in a role which he has never played before—that of a shepherder. It is a practical demonstration of his ability to take any role and appear to advantage in it, and it is a mammoth two-reel Universal drama, entitled "The Sheep-Herder." In the picture Mr. Kerrigan plays the title part, and ends by making the lowly care-taker, the object of contempt, even by the layman, into a real hero. It is a gripping Western drama, with plenty of action, and one of the feaures is a heard of 3,000 sheep used as a realism asset in the picture It is undoubtebly one of Kerrigan's greatest achievements, and he is surrounded by a bunch of stars that make it one of the notable releases of the times.

"Universal Ike in Pursuit of The East," is another one of these riproaring Universal Ike comdies, in which Ikie was chased into a lion's den for stealing an elephant, and other ludicrous events take place to make it a scream from beginning to end. It starts when the even tenor of his existence is broken when by the will of a dead relative he is left a hotel in Alkali City. Thus the cowboy becomes a landed proprietor. However, wealth does not always bring happiness, and Ikie gets into all sorts of trouble from his new acquisition.

The programme will end with another of those excruciatingly funny and clever Keystone comedies, one of the best that the Keystone stars have yet produced.

Week-End at the Grand.

Yes, the Grand Theatre, the people's favorite amusement spot, has prepared a big bill for this week-end. It will be the greatest collection of films ever flashed on a screen—and such a big screen, too, as the Grand has. There will be films of advanture; films of high dramatic power for romance; films of love and films that will evoke laughter by the yard. The film list today will be headed by a big special two-part film, Pathe's "A Mad Love," and it is one of the most thrilling ever set forth. There are many spectacular incidents, that will carry with them a thrill. One of the chief of these will be a honeymoon trip in a balloon when the discarded lover cuts the gas-bag and the great air monster falls through space. It is one of the most graphic and thrilling scenes ever presented in "movies."

The Vitagraph also has a big film on today in "The Kiss." It is the story of Alice, a shop girl, and handsome, wealthy George Dale. Besides possessing a beautiful plot, it will present a notable cast, headed by clever, charming Margaret Gibson, and dashing George Holt and William D. Taylor.

The Biograph has the main laugh film on today and it is a really wonderful ha, ha story. It is a tale of music, crackers and art, and there's a laugh a second.

Remember, the price of admission is still tiny 5 cents, afternoon and night.

Florence, Italy, June 5.—The plea of "extenuating circumstances" was accepted today in behalf of Vincenzo Perugia, who stole Da Vinci's "Mona Lisa" from the Louvre in Paris. The judges sentenced him today to one year and 15 days imprisonment. As Perugia has been in prison awaiting trial since December last year, he will serve only about six months.

GOVERNOR APPEALS FOR APPROPRIATION

Wants $15,000 for State Exhibit at Frisco

Board of Agriculture Agrees to Pay Part of $50,000 Needed for State's Representation at Exposition.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Raleigh, N. C., June 5.—Governor Craig went before the State Board of Agriculture this morning and made a special appeal for the board to appropriate as much as $15,000 to be used toward the installation of suitable exhibits at the Panama Pacific exposition. He outlined the tentative plans of the North Carolina Commission on representation at the exposition showing that about $50,000 is expected to be required to give the State adequate representation.

A large part of this the commission plans to get from railroad companies, tobacco manufacturers, cotton milling interests and other enterprises, these to be in a large measure recompensed through advertising, including moving picture and other devises in the State building at the exposition. He expressed the belief that the next Legislature will readily make a liberal appropriation toward the representation. The commission decided to make the appropriation conditioned on the carrying out of the plans an a creditable basis. The appropriation of the board will be used largely in installing agricultural and museum exhibits.

The commissioner goes to Carthage Saturday to address the Farmer's Union there on the adaptation of the building and loan system to the farmers so as to meet the needs for rural credits.

UNIQUE PUBLIC WEDDING.

Early Morning Ceremony Will Attract Many to Olive's Chapel.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Apex, N. C., June 5.—One of the first public weddings on a large scale to take place in traditional old Olive's Chapel since automobiles have come so generally into use will be that of Miss Elsie G. Barker, of Apex, to Mr. George S. Beatty, of Ivanhoe, near Wilmington, at 9 A. M. Wednesday, June 10. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. J. M. Holleman, assisted by Rev. W. S. Olive, both of Apex.

The fact that a large party of friends of Mr. Beatty propose coming through from Wilmington by automobile and that scores of machines from Raleigh, Durham, Apex and other places will be present at the wedding, will not deter those making the plans from taking every possible advantage of the quaint surroundings of old Olive's Chapel, where half a century ago it was the scene of many brilliant occasions. In order to conform to ancient custom, yet have it thoroughly modern, the church will be darkened and light furnished by candles. The decorators have planned some unique features, which they are keeping secret from the public.

Newbern, N. C., June 5.—Announcement is made that the company owning the Newbern Gas Company and the Goldsboro Gas Company, has disposed of their holdings to a company of Philadelphia capitalists and that in the future the two companies will be operated by that syndicate. William M. Crane and George H. Warner and others were the former owners of the company and it has proved to be a paying venture to them.

The new owners are the International Gas and Electric Company of Philadelphia. So far as is known, and in fact such announcement has been made, there will be no change in the staff of employes in either office. At the local office F. H. Sawyer will remain as manager and will be assisted by H. D. Wood as superintendent. The force in the Goldsboro office will also remain the same.

IN DEFENSE OF GRAND JURY.

Judge Allen and Solicitor Norris Asked to Take Action.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 5.—The Wake county grand jury has called upon Judge O. H. Allen and Solicitor Norris to take some action in the defense of the jury from the charges made by State Superintendent R. L. Davis, of the Anti-Saloon League, that the jury flagrantly refused in a number of instances, to return true bills against alleged blind tigers. They brand the charges of Supt. Davis or any one else to that effect as false, but their oath of secrecy as to matters that take place in the grand jury room prevents them from stating the facts in refutation. It is on this account that they ask the judge and solicitor to take whatever action they can to protect the jury from these false accusations.

LUMINA OPENS TONIGHT

Opening Dance of Season at Popular Pavilion This Evening—Summer Schedules.

Lumina, the most popular pavilion on the South Atlantic coast, will open tonight with a dance beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The Don Richardson orchestra composed of 11 members will make its first appearance and will furnish music for the occasion. They will also give a concert tomorrow afternoon. The regular summer schedules of the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Company, which provide a half hour service during the greater part of the day and night, are effective today.

Many improvements have been made at Lumina during the past winter and with one of the best orchestras in the country it will have another season of wonderful success. In addition to the orchestra there will be two dancing instructors, Miss Chandler and Mr. West, who will be under the management of Mr. Richardson. They have already arrived and will tonight give two demonstrations of the tango and the maxixe, one at 9:45 and another at 10:30. Both the orchestra and the dance artists come to Lumina direct from New York.

Besides Mr. Richardson the other members of the orchestra are C. Elkin, A. Baldini, D. Rosanel, Carl A. Stanger, A. Morrison, B. Messner and J. Levergrand. All of these men are capable musicians and have been playing together under the leadership of Mr. Richardson in New York during the past winter, so that the orchestra this season has the advantage of being already well organized for its initial concert.

The low week-end rates of the Atlantic Coast Line are effective today and will continue until late in September. This will enable hundreds of people from all the nearby towns to spend Sunday at the beach. On the Wilmington & Weldon road, the tickets are good for the Saturday night trains and can be used on the train leaving Wilmington Monday morning at 3:40 o'clock. This will enable people living on this line to spend the night in Wilmington, visit the beach on Sunday and return Monday morning. The rates on the other lines of the Atlantic Coast Line are good for all Sunday trains and the schedules enable persons to leave home early Sunday morning, spend the day at the beach and return Sunday night.

For the first time the Seaboard Air Line will have low Sunday rates to the beach, which become effective tomorrow. It is expected that these low rates by both the roads to Wilmington will bring more people than ever before to the beach.

For the first time the Atlantic Coast Line is operating through train service to Atlanta, Ga., with up-to-date Pullman cars. This splendid service in connection with the through service by the Seaboard to Atlanta and other points in the South and Southwest will undoubtedly bring more visitors to the hotels of the beach than has been the case in any previous summer.

PLURALITY OF WORLDS.

Origin and Destiny of Satan Subject of Sermon by Mr. Haynes.

That there is a plurality of inhabited worlds, that Satan was once a sinless angel who, when he fell, tried to conquer all the world, but succeeded in conquering only this one, that his dominion over this one will soon come to a full end, and that the heads or governors of the other worlds hold periodical councils in heaven over which God presides, were some of the statements made last night at the tent at 11th and Market streets, by Evangelist Carlyle B. Haynes in a forceful address on "Satan—His Origin, Work and Destiny."

There will be no meeting tonight at the tent, the next service there being announced for Sunday night, at which time Mr. Haynes will deliver a historical address on the subject of "The Great Counterfeit of Christianity."

WORK OF DISTRUCTION BEING WELL PAID FOR

Young Lady Who Caused Sensation at Buckingham is Barred from Future Court Functions—Was of Good Family.

London, June 5.—Miss Mary Blomfield, daughter of Lady Sara Louisa Blomfield, widow of Sir Arthur Blomfield, was the woman who created the sensational scene at Buckingham Palace last night when she threw herself on her knees before King George and Queen Mary.

Miss Blomfield alone was concerned in the incident, although her sister, who also attended the court, was requested to leave the palace after the occurrence.

Officials of the Palace today were on the verge of nervous prostration as the result of last night's scene and the Lord Chamberlain's department has taken ever precaution to circumvent any attempt to repeat the performance tonight when another function takes place at Buckingham Palace.

Persons in the immediate vicinity at the time declare that the whole scene lasted less than ten seconds and that the woman had only time to ejaculate audibly, "Your Majesties! For God's sake—" when she was seized and hustled out of the throne room.

King George was the coolest man in the company and the presentations proceeded after the incident with clock-work regularity. It is understood no further action will be taken against Miss Blomfield, except to bar her from future court functions.

The sisters obtained admission to court in the ordinary way through application to the Lord Chamberlain's department.

John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, today declined a request by Irish suffragists that he receive a deputation to discuss the inclusion of women as electors for the Irish Parliament.

In consequence of suffrage attacks, churches in many parts of the country are being closed except for the usual Sunday services.

Recent discourtesies to the King and the burning down of many churches have inflamed public opinion to a remarkable degree. People have been still further incensed by belief that much of the work of destruction is well paid for out of the bulging coffers of the Womens' Social and Political Union. Cases have been reported of women leaving other employment to join the militants, not from love of the cause, but because "the pay is better."

Police magistrates have warned suffragist prisoners that if they had not been protected by the police they would almost certainly have suffered at the hands of the irate public.

Much lucrative American tourist business is being lost by London hotel and storekeepers because of the suffragist raids on the public museums and art galleries.

Church Destroyed.

Derby, Eng., June 5.—The ancient and historic church at Beardsall, dating back to Norman times, and containing many priceless relics, was destroyed by fire during the night. Suffragists are suspected, as explosions seemingly from bombs usually employed by the arson squad preceded the fire. A short time ago a suffragist meeting in the village of Beardsall was broken up by boys and it is generally supposed that the women burned the church in revenge.

C., June 5.—The first rain that has fallen in this section in nearly eight weeks came this afternoon, bringing relief to the parched condition and doing an unlimited amount of good to the growing crops, although it came too late to help some of the damage that has been done to such crops as strawberries, the loss on this crop alone running into many thousands of dollars along the Wilmington & Weldon railroad.

(Saturday, June 6th 1914.)

A boy's idea of a critic is that he is a smart knocker who doesn't like to do anything but find fault.

Mrs. Pankhurst has been arrested again in London, but still there is no news of the whereabouts of Mr. Pankhurst.

Instead of going on the war path now, the Indians send a delegation to Washington, present their cause and have it adjusted according to justice and equity.

Why not discover or invent something that is useful to mankind. There is a broad field in chemistry and the wonders of science and skill are only partially disclosed.

If the Democratic State convention did not give you all you wanted, take what it handed out and prepare yourself to get more when everything begins to come your way.

It has been proposed to establish small manufacturing industries in the rural districts but so far no cotton mills have been established, although there is frequent announcement of the fact that automobilists are "spinning" along every road that is good enough to be used.

THE STATE CONVENTION'S WORK.

The Democratic State Convention which met in Raleigh on Thursday took about just such action as was expected. It did credit to itself by its hearty and well worded endorsement of the Wilson Administration and the general course of Democratic legislation at Washington. That was expected and it will be gratifying to the people of the State. The nomination of Senator Lee S. Overman to succeed himself, and the nomination of Corporation Commissioner E. L. Travis for another term, were but ratifications of the foreordained will of the Democracy of the State.

The organic speaking body of the Democracy took a good step towards a legalized State nominations primary election system, but it will be disappointing to some, that while it includes the nomination of all kinds of State and National officials, it omits those of counties and municipalities. We can see no force in the arguments advanced to withhold the system from the counties, but that is coming sooner or later, for if the primary is good enough for the nomination of a governor, it is dependable in making a choice of our legislators and county officers.

The action of the State convention is only its view expressed as the declaration of the party's position. It finally rests with the General Assembly to pass a primary election act, and it depends altogether upon what kind of a law can be gotten out of the Legislature to be elected next November. We haven't got that primary yet, and so it is necessary during the campaign to see that our State Senators and Representatives are committed to the idea.

The convention had the honor and great privilege of hearing Secretary Wm. C. Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, and certainly one of the most intellectual and constructive men of President Wilson's Cabinet. He delivered a most impressive speech, and it was good for the North Carolina Democracy for this strong man to come to the State and not only prove the party's great record at Washington but make a speech that had new thought in it. Secretary Redfield is an investigator, and we predict that his aggressive and keen work in his department will revolutionize the commercial and industrial factors in American progress.

A HAPPY TERMINATION.

The Wilmington public has cause for sincere congratulation in the happy termination of the local imbroglio over the health situation—the more so because a settlement has been effected that means no backward step in the health work of the community and that apparently all sides to the controversy have become reconciled to the settlement. As we have taken occasion to remark before, there was something to be said on both sides of the question and the public generally was willing to concede to the recalcitrant members of council the courage of their convictions. At the same time, however, public sentiment was overwhelmingly to the effect that there should be no backward step in the health work of the community, and with the investigation now proposed, there is no reason why differences should not be settled amicable and forever.

The committee of citizens deserves a vote of thanks for its unselfish and patriotic service in the matter, involving at times a diplomacy that was sublime and a sagacity that would have done credit to master generals in warfare. The council met the issue and yielded to an undobted public sentiment that so forcibly expressed itself in the recent mass-meeting, without any compromise of its principles or convitions. The investigation of the health department by admitted experts in business economy and in health practice is now before us and this committee should be furnished with the lines of every avenue of information.

Those who have charged open and above board that the health department was recklessly and extravagantly administered or was inefficient, should come forward with the facts upon which to base their statements, or they should be forever disbarred from further public criticism. Undoubtedly there has been much criticism of the health department. Justly or unjustly, now is the time to settle the controversy once and for all, and it's up to the opposition to "put up or shut up."

SECRETARY DANIELS COMING.

..It will be extremly gratifying to the editors of North Carolina to learn that the Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will be one of the honored guests at the North Carolina Press Association when it's annual convention meets at Wrightsville Beach, June 24th. Mr. Daniels is a member of the Association and it has the distinction of having furnished President Wilson with one of his ablest and most conspicuous Cabinet members. However, it is not as a member of the newspaper fraternity that he is coming but as a distinguished member of the United States government family at Washington.

Mr. Daniels will deliver an address to the editors when they forgather at the sea, and it need not be said that his presence will be gratifying especially to his fellow newspaper makers and particularly to the people of Wilmington. This occasion will afford Secretary Daniels his first opportunity to visit Wilmington since he became a Cabinet member and it will give our people the cherished opportunity to do him honor as one of the State's most distinguished sons and one of the Democracy's chosen men, sitting close up to President Wilson for whom the Nation will ever be grateful to the national Democracy.

The Star takes peculiar pleasure in the prospect of a visit to our city by the Secretary of the Navy, for it shared the pleasure of urging him for a place in Mr. Wilson's Cabinet and rejoiced when the honor fell upon such worthy shoulders. Secretary Daniels has fuly measured up to the great trust which was placed in his hands by the President. It was a position of great responsibilities, but the North Carolina editor is a man who easily took them on and has demonstrated the high ability that makes the honor all the Navy's

MT. AIRY RAILROAD SITUATION.

A few days ago The Star referred editorially to the general complaint with regard to the condition of the Southern Railway's end of the old Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road, at and near Mount Airy, N. C., Editor Johnson, of The News, of that place, having started a campaign of publicity to bring things to rights. We ventured the prediction that the Mount Airy editor would succeed in his appeal to public opinion, and that he is doing so is indicated in a news dispatch from Mount Airy to the Greensboro Daily News of yesterday.

The dispatch says the citizens of Mount Airy have been awakened to the real conditions and are determined to secure the needed improvement. Thirty or more citizens on Thursday constituted themselves a committee to investigate personally a mile or more of the road leading out of Mount Airy. The party consisted of prominent business and professional men who allege that conditions are terrible and fully justify the allegations of the local newspapers. They say they ascertained by examination that a large percentage of the ties are rotten and that it was an easy matter to withdraw spikes with the hands. Photographs were taken of the ties and these are to be used in a forthcoming presentation of the case to the grand jury of Surry county by Solicitor S. P. Graves, who was recently in a wreck on the line, and which gave Editor Johnson, of the Mount Airy News, his inspiration for the publicity campaign to bring about better conditions.

The fight of the Mount Airy people, as a last resort to the court of public opinion, as tersely expressed by the Mount Airy editor, will be watched with interest by the State at large. It is a case of the people moving for themselves in a matter of the gravest importance to their community and the public.

PEACE DEPENDS ON CARRANZA.

The day that it was announced that the mediators withdrew their invitation to General Carranza to participate in the Mexican peace parley, The Star declared that it was a mistake not to have left the invitation open so the Constitutionalists could come into the parley at any time. It seems now that General Carranza is practically being begged to participate in the mediation proceedings, since no satisfactory adjustment can be arranged without some agreement with the hitherto victorious rebels.

The mediators have completed their programme so far, and now there is delay for the reason that the work cannot be finished till some kind of agreement with Carranza can be reached. It is the Constitutionalist chief's next move and it seems that everything depends on his attitude with reference to the message forwarded to him by the mediators. The Washington government is very much disposed to take the view that the terms for peace should be perfectly satisfactory to General Carranza.

Within a few days we are likely to see a complete understanding with Carranza, else the responsibility for further delay of peace will be shifted from Huerta to Carranza.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The gentleman from North Carolina has decreed that the tolls repeal bill must be passed immediately, therefore passed it will be. It has just about come to the place where, right or wrong, what North Carolina says goes in Washington.—Greensboro News.

With reference to the railroad crossing accident by which a good citizen of its town lost his life because his automobile engine choked down—an accident precisely like one near Charlotte not long ago and many others attended by fatalities or narrow escapes—the Greensboro Record urges against driving automobiles across dangerous places on high gear. And, we may add, there should be fewer venturesome brushes on any gear with railroad trains.—Charlotte Observer.

The Charlotte Observer furnishes this seasonable fashion item: "The slit bathing skirt was to be expected in due course. According to a London dispatch, 'it is made to open V shape as much as possible in front and still lower in the back, the skirts are longer than before, which accentuates the display of limb, and when flesh pink tights are worn underneath the effect is fascinating.' Next!" Wrightsville is always up to date, so we shall expect to see the latest—or lowest—cut when the press gang gathers at the beach this month.—Laurinburg Exchange.

"Next to Woodrow Wilson, the man who is doing the most efficient work for good government in this country today is Theodore Roosevelt," says the Baltimore Sun. This is a compliment with a string to it, and The Sun immediately pulls the string. It explains that this fine work that Roosevelt is doing for good government is in "maintaining the split in the Republican ranks, insuring, as no one else could, the continued control of Congress by the Democratic party." How does the Colonel like the compliment? —Hartford (Conn.) Courant.

We are told that there will be no amalgamation of the Republican and Progressive parties in the New York campaign, but there may be "fusion." A blessed word is "fusion," and the thing itself is more blessed than its name. Fusian would give Mr. Roosevelt a chance to get back into the Republican party through the side-door "family entrance," and it would give William Barnes the much-needed opportunity to become a leader instead of a boss. All that is requisite to a workable fusion next fall is for Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Barnes to agree on an equitable division of the swag. Then Mr. Barnes' party could proceed to nominate certain Republican candidates with Progressive tendencies, Mr. Roosevelt's party could proceed to nominate certain Progressives with Republican tendencies, and the thing would be done.—New York World.

To be returned to office as a member of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, Hon. Edward L. Travis was on yesterday given the unanimous vote of the State Democratic convention of North Carolina. His re-nomination to that important position means his successful election in November. As chairman of the North Carolina Corporation Commission Mr. Travis has gained that experience during his years of service which will enable him to render a service of value to North Carolina in the many matters of vast importance which come before the Corporation Commission of the State. Around the North Carolina Corporation Commission in large part has been waged the battle to secure an end of freight rate discrimination in North Carolina. In that battle in which he took a prominent part, Mr. Travis was finally enabled to secure, because of his insistence, of the insistence of the people, and of the position taken by Governor Craig, an offer of compromise from the railroads which was accepted by the Legislature and which in inter-State freight rates puts North Carolina forward by a long step towards securing full justice.—Raleigh News and Observer.

CARD FROM PHYSICIANS.

To the Editor of The Star:

The undersigned members of the medical profession whose names were mentioned in connection with the Health Department imbroglio, and who were correctly quoted as not being in sympathy with many of the methods of the present Superintendent of Health, beg leave to state to the public, in the first place, that they were not invited to this conference except through the columns of the daily press which they do not consider constitutes an invitation, and that, second, they did not feel that their presence was necessary for the public good because they believed that anything they might say would be ineffective. This conclusion was reached from past experience. The public is welcome to any aid they can render for the public good but they maintain that because they differ from the present incumbent in their professional opinions is not proof of their bad faith.

WHO IS TO FEED THE CONVICT'S FAMILY?

When a young husband and father commits an awful crime and is sent to the penitentiary for thirty years, the State may hire him out for $1 a day and thus put more than nine thousand gold dollars into the State treasury.

What about his wife and children? If the wife has no home and no money to buy one, we may expect her soon to break down in trying to feed, clothe and shelter those children. They ought to have a part of the nine thousand dollars. Let the Legislature require county commissioners to look into such cases.—A. D. Betts in North Carolina Christian Advcate.

The Day of Fake Advertising is Passing

As a matter of self-protection, as well as protection of the public, we are downright glad to see the dawn of honest advertising.

The store that has honest merchandise at right prices need not hesitate to tell the truth.

For Example, we never had the least difficulty in advertising Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes for men. They contain so much that is superaltively good that the plain truth about them is the simplest kind of a story.

But after all they tell their own story better than cold type can tell it. If you, Mr. Man, are not familiar with that story and the clothes that tell it, don't you wait another day to hear it.

Incidentally, the Spring and Summer showing of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes is ready. To be found here exclusively.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ARE GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Hon. J. W. Bailey Delivers Commencement Address

Large Audience Present at Finals of City Schools in Academy of Music Last Night—Announcement of Awards.

The final commencement exercises of the city schools were held last evening in the Academy of Music when the senior class of the High School of 30 bright young men and young ladies were given their diplomas after hearing a most forceful appeal to form high and noble ideals and back them up with a will that will not be conquered, delivered by Hon. Josiah William Bailey, United States Internal Revenue collector, of Raleigh.

To keep the rudder true to the highest and noblest and all that is best and good; to aim high and persist to the end; to have robust bodies; to resolve to do one's task better than anyone else has ever done it, were emphasized by the speaker of the evening as being the important aims of life. The address was replete with illustrations and the speaker gave in short resume the life stories of a number of noted public men in this State who have risen high in the estimation of their fellowman because of their persistence and determination.

Although the threatening weather, the first in many weeks, doubtless kept some away, there was a large audience present and they showed their appreciation of telling points in the address by frequent outbursts of applause.

The pretty sweet girl graduates in lovely creations of white and with beautiful baskets of pink sweet peas and the handsome faces of the young men of the Senior class formed a striking back ground for the exercises of the evening, which were opened with the invocation by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James Episcopal church. J. O. Carr, Esq., chairman of the county board of Education, introduced the speaker of the evening in a short address in which he outlined briefly the work that has been done in educational lines in the city of Wilmington. Following the address by Mr. Bailey, Supt. J. J. Blair presented the seniors with their diplomas.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble, head of the department of education of the University of North Carolina, in his inimitable way that words cannot describe, presented Mr. John Allan Thames with a four-year scholarship to the University, he having made the highest average of any male members of the Senior class. Prof. Noble recalled with evident pleasure his past associations in Wilmington, when he served as head of the city school system.

John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., presented the Amy Morris Bradley scholarship medal to Miss Thelma Brooks, who made the highest average of her class this being 96.96. The German-American Alliance medal for the highest average made in German was presented to Miss Mary Claire Peterson by Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Clausen, Washington Catlett, County Superintendent Schools.

Mr. Carr's Address.

In his introductory remarks Mr. Carr reviewed briefly the history of the present school system in Wilmington and showed the remarkable growt that it has had under the efficient leadership of Superintendeent Blair. He next took up the ned that prompted the school board to move the present High School building to another location.

The primary and controlling reason he stated, for not re-building the Union school on the site of the old building was because there was no room for a playground. The new building will be in use for years to come, he explained, and it is recognized by all leaders in educational work that a playground is necessary. On account of the high cost of property in that vicinity, it was manifest-

FINALS OF UNION SCHOOL

Commencement Exercises Yesterday Morning—Large Class Promoted High School.

Seventy-six girls and boys received their certificates of promotion from the eighth grade to the High School at the commencement exercises of the Union School yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Besides the 1,300 children, who are students in this popular grammar school, there were a large number of parents and friends present, filling the immense auditorium to its utmost capacity. The exercises included songs, reading of the class history, presentation of class gifts and a short address by John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., chairman of the school committee.

Miss Mary E. Cook has had charge of the school the past year and with a most efficient corps of faithful teachers has been able to accomplish great things for the children. The excellent training which they have received was reflected in the their splendid behavior yesterday and the most creditable manner in which they acquitted themselves in the exercises of the day.

Miss Margaret Gibson was in charge of the first division of the class to be promoted to the High School, and Miss Isabell St. Amand of the second division. The class was an unusually large one, having 76 members.

Supt. John J. Blair was in charge of the exercises yesterday. At the conclusion of the exercises when the certificates had been presented to the graduating class, a short address was made by John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., chairman of the school committee, in which he warmly commended Mr. Blair, Miss Cook and the teachers associated with her for the splendid work which they have done the past year. He was of the opinion that parents fail to give teachers and school officers the proper credit for the fine work that they do.

Two pretty pictures were presented to the school by the two divisions of the Eighth grade. The gift of Eighth Grade A. was a painting of Sir Walter Raleigh, picturing him in conversation with two boys. The presentation was made by Hooper Johnson. The gift of Eighth Grade B. was a beautiful maritime scene, showing a full rigged ship plowing her way through the sea. This was presented, by Louis Skinner.

Miss Lou Smith's room was given the prize offered by Sorosis to the room for the most beautiful window boxes. The Sorosis prize of $5 offered to the child collecting the largest number of signatures of people who have cleaned and beautified their premises was awarded to Merle Louise Creasy.

The exercises were closed with the singing of Carolina Hills, the new Tar Heel song. The members of the school have learned this song and sing it with spirit and enthusiasm.

LULL FOLLOWS THE STORM

General Relief Over End of Health Controversy—Total Budget Amounts to $310,274.

No action was taken yesterday by members of City Council looking toward an investigation of the health department, as provided in the resolution passed at the meeing Thursday afternoon, following the receipt of the resolution from the citizens committee agreeing to an investigation providing members of Council would prefer written charges of inefficiency as a basis of the investigation. However, it was stated by one member of the body that the mater would be taken up later.

In the meantime, members of Council as well as the members of the Citizens Committee and the public at large, seem inclined to breath a sigh of relief now that the long controversy following the action of Council in reducing the health budget for the present fiscal year, is at an end. Members of Council pointed out yesterday that while it is not specified in the formal resolution passd by the body rescinding its action in cutting down the budget, and appropriating the full amount asked for by the Board of Health, they did so with the understanding that if the report of the investigation committee shows that money appropriated for the health work is being expended injudicuosly, then the appropriation is to be cut down in accordance with reeccomendations of the investigators.

The Complete Budget.

Including the health budget at repassed at the meeting Thursday afternoon, the complete budget proper for the fiscal year beginning June 1st, carries a total appropriation of $300,056, an increase over last year's budget of approximately $24,000. Last year's budget proper was approximately $276,000. Not included in this year's budget proper, however, is an appropriation of $10,243 for the scavenging work, which it expected be mainly self supporting this year, which brings the total appropriation for the year up to $310,274. The estimated income for the year is said to be around $325,000. It is stated that outstanding notes approximating $17,000 and a deficit from last year of approximately $13,000 exist. These items are not taken care of in the budget.

A detailed summary of the budget is as follows: General expense account, $26,130; police, $38,281; fire, $37,070; streets and wharves, $42,736; health and hospitals, $33,472; markets, $1,850; street lighting, $18,019; garbage, $5,722; incinerator, $3,335; Coupon and interest account, $93,000; Special, auto and police truck, $3,200; pump for fire boat, $2,000; street flusher, $1,300; scavenging, $10,218. Total $310,274.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The opening session of the State Christian Endeavor Convention was held in Greesboro yesterday and the meeting will continue through today and tomorrow. Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, this city, is president of the State Association, and delivered his annual address at the opening session yesterday. Quite a delegation from Wilmington is atending the convention.

DROUGHT BROKEN AT LAST

Rainfall Here Was .33 of an Inch—Local Showers All Over Southeast—More Today.

Yesterday broke the prolonged drought that nas prevailed over this section since the latter part of April, .33 of an inch of rain having fallen up to 8 o'clock last evening. Some slight rainfall occurred later in the night, and the prediction for today is unsettled weather, with local showers.

Up to 8 o'clock last evening, Wilmington fared better than the other cities of the State in the matter of rainfall yesterday. In Asheville .10 of an inch was recorded, while Raleigh and Charlotte reported only .06. Local showers prevailed, however, all over the Southeastern section of the United States, and the outlook for today is for more rain. Galveston, Texas, reported the heaviest rainfall yesterady, 1.06 falling there. Savannah reported .30, and Birmingham, Ala., .20.

The rain here yesterday, while not a heavy one, was for the most part a steady, soaking downpour, and it will have a splendid effect on the growing crops, which have suffered to some extent from the drought. It was the first rain, to speak of, in this immediate section since April 20th, though several very light showers have occurred since that time.

Not in many years has this section been visited by so prolonged a drought at this season of the year as the one broken by the shower of yesterday. Three years ago, in the spring and early summer of 1911, a very dry spell occurred, but did not last quite so long as this one, and was not so widespread.

Accompanying the rainfall here was a most refreshing drop in temperature. Following the shower yesterday afternoon the thermometer dropped from 89 to 70 within a few hours, and last night it was delightfully cool after the sultry days prevailing recently.

BEGIN "LAYING BY" MONDAY.

Corn and Cotton Crops in Lenoir Unusually Good.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 5.—Reports from every part of Lenoir county indicate that the corn and cotton crops this year will be the largest in the county's history. The condition of both crops is excellent. Tobacco is not faring so well because of the early set-backs. Early almost beyond precedent, the process of "laying by" will begin in the rich Moseley Hall section next Monday. There the farmers are anticipating yields of grain and cotton far above the average.

ATTEND PRESS CONVENTION

Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of Navy, Will Visit Wilmington Latter Part of Month.

The gratifying news that Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will visit Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach the latter part of this month to attend the annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association, was received by the local press committee yesterday morning in a telegram from Mr. Clarence Poe, of Raleigh, president of the Association.

The message from Mr. Poe stated that he had received from Secretary Daniels his acceptance of an invitation to attend the convention and address the editors of the State.

This will be Mr. Daniels' first visit to Wilmington in a number of years, and it will be the first time that the city has been honored with a visit from him since he became a member of President Wilson's Cabinet.

The distinguished North Carolinian has been for years a leading member of the Press Association, and has always taken a deep interest in the organization. Four years ago, when the convention met at Wrightsville Beach, he could not be present, much to the regret of all members of the Association, as well as the citizens of Wilmington. He has many personal friends in this city and section who will be more than glad to greet him on the occasion of his visit here this month, and to extend to him congratulations on the splendid record he has made in the important Cabinet position which he occupies.

The public entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce will probably arrange some special event as a mark of respect and honor to the Secretary of the Navy on the occasion of his visit here.

CAROLINA BEACH OPENS MONDAY FOR SUMMER

Low Round Trip Rate on Steamer Wilmington—Fare Ten Cents.

The formal opening of Carolina Beach will take place Monday when it is expected that several hundred people will go down for the day. In honor of the opening a low round trip rate of ten cents has been made by Capt. Harper of the steamer Wilmington. Carolina Beach has a reputation as one of the most popular Summer resorts in this section and the indications for a very successful season are most encouraging.

Many improvements have been made the past Winter, among these being the installation of an electric light plant and the driving of several deep water wells. The pavilion has also been reparied and several new cottages built. There are already a number of people living at the beach and others will move in soon.

The steamer Wilmington will make two trips tomorrow to Southport, touching at Carolina Beach each time.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelled Backache, Headaches and Dizziness.

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORPHA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FORMER WILMINGTONIAN WILL WED MORGANTON GIRL.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Of much social interest throughout the State is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Eloise McCurdy Erwin, of Morganton, to Mr. Louis Brown McKoy, of Charlotte, formerly of Wilmington, the wedding to occur in August. The engagement of the popular young couple was made known at an elegant and perfectly appointed luncheon given by Mrs. Edward D. Alexander at her home in Morganton Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for 12 and a color-note of white and green was observed in an artistic fashion in the table decorations and in each elaborate course served.

"The bride-elect is a daughter of the late Captain George Phifer Erwin and Mrs. Erwin, and is a sister of Mrs. Fred M. Laxton of this city. A young woman of gentle birth and possessing refinement and culture to a marked degree, Miss Erwin adorns any circle in which she moves. Miss Erwin has visited in Wilmington a number of times, and has a host of friends in the city. It was while she was visiting Miss Etta Brand here that Mr. McKoy became acquainted with her. Miss Brand will be one of the bridesmaids at the approaching wedding.

Wrightsville Beach

All is in readiness for the opening at Lumina tonight.

Wrightsville was the first place in this vicinity to be visited with a shower, rain falling there yesterday morning.

The first Sunday afternoon concert at Lumina will be given tomorrow afternoon by the Don Richardson orchestra.

Fishing is proving to be a most popular sport at the beach. Two parties went out yesterday and both had fine luck, bringing in nearly 200 fish.

Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the Seashore, stated yesterday that he is receiving applications for reservations in every mail now. He expects to have many arrivals within the next few days.

The opening dance at Lumina takes place tonight and with the splendid car service now in operation between Wilmington and the beach, there will no doubt be a large attendance.

The regular summer schedules of the suburban line of the Tidewater Power Company begin today. For a greater part of the day and night there will be cars every half hour.

One of the features this year of the Tidewater Power Company will be the Lumina specials which will be operated on Sunday afternoons and on other days when the travel is heavy. The running time for these cars is 35 minutes.

Among those registered at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Mr. John B. Jones, Florence, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fetzer, Raleigh; Col. W. B. Fort, Pikeville; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Epps, Kinston; Bert Hollowell, Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Schoolfield, Mullins, S. C.

Dr. A. L. Hyatt, a well known young physician, of Kinston, will be house physician at the Seashore Hotel this summer. He has already arrived and has entered upon his duties. He is a graduate of the University of Maryland Medical school and following his graduation spent a year in the University Hospital. He has been located at Kinston for the past four years.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pelham and children, Miss Mary and Master Gordon Pelham, accompanied by Mrs. Pelham's mother, Mrs. T. C. Gordon of Dyersburg, Tenn., will spend the week-end at Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Gordon will return to her home at Dyersburg the last of next week accompanied by her grandchildren, Mary and Gordon Pelham."

The Hanover Inn will open its third season today, the first meal served being supper tonight. It will be under the management of Mrs. Annie C. Wall, of Hillsboro, N. C., and Miss E. E. Disosway, of Atlanta, Ga., both of whom have had extensive experience in the management of hotels. They arrived the first of the week and have everything in readiness for the opening. The Hanover is one of the most popular hostelries on the beach and has in the past enjoyed a large patronage, and the indications are that it will have more guests this summer than ever before.

and treasurer of the navigation company.

He said he was named on a special committee in February, 1909, to buy additional securities of the West Chester road after $13,000,000 already had been expended. He said the committee recommended the purchase by the New Haven of controlling interest in the West Chester under authorization of the Connecticut Public Service Commission.

Mr. Ledyard said he went to see President Taft in connection with the Grand Trunk matter.

At the conclusion of Mr. Ledyard's testimony Hofmann Miller asked permission to introduce a statement from his father, George McCullough Miller, regarding his part in West Chester affairs. Commissioner Daniels ruled that the statement should be examined by the commission before its admission to the record.

Francis H. McAdams created a ripple of merriment by his testimony as to the tax returns of John L. Billiard at Meriden, Conn. In 1907, he said, Mr. Billiard returned $30,100 worth of realty and a $50 piano. For subsequent years the list remained unchanged excepting the addition of a $50 horse and a $75 carriage. Mr. Billiard's attorneys suggested that under the Connecticut laws, it is not necessary to report securities which are taxable in some States.

Procedure of Meetings.

T. DeWitt Cuyler, who became a director of the New Haven in October 1910, put on the stand by Walter D. Hines, attorney for the New Haven, to make a statement on behalf of the New Haven road, told of the method of procedure at the meetings of the New Haven directors and the meeting of the executive committee. Most of the time, he said, was devoted to matters affecting the operation of the road and comparatively little to financial transactions.

The directors always deliberated carefully when the matter of declaring a dividend came up, Mr. Cuyler added.

ministration anti-trust programme, carries provisions designed to strengthen and support the Sherman law and other acts against monopolies and restraints of trade. As framed by administration leaders and passed by the House the bill contains:

Prohibitions against price discrimination, or arbitrary refusal to sell natural mineral products, and against the enforcement of conditional leases, or contracts of sale under which lessees or purchasers agree not to deal in the products of competitors of the seller or lessor; a provision that decrees in suits brought by the government under the anti-trust law shall be final evidence in suits brought against the defendant by others, involving the anti-trust law; provisions against holding companies and interlocking directorates in concerns under the jurisdiction of the Federal government; and provisions guaranteeing labor and farmers' organizations their legal existence under the Sherman law, limiting the use of the injunction in labor disputes, and providing for jury trials in cases of indirect contempt of court.

In addition the bill clears up various jurisdictional questions and questions of procedure which have arisen in the administration of the anti-trust laws.

Terminates Long Fight.

The provisions insisted upon by and agreed to after conferences between them and the representatives of the administration, were looked upon as the culmination of a long fight by labor to secure exemption under the Sherman law. They provide that nothing in the anti-trust laws shall be construed to "forbid the existence and operation," of labor and farmers' unions, and that such organizations and their members shall not be construed or held to be "illegal combinations or conspiracies under the anti-trust laws." How far the exemption will extend was a matter of debate in the House, and many members contended the question would result in long litigation.

The restrictions placed about the issuance of injunctions in the bill are close. It would provide that no "preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the opposite party," and that no temporary restraining order shall be issued unless it shall appear from specific facts shown by affidavit that immediate and irreparable injury will result to properay or a property right of the applicant before notice could be served or hearing had thereon. The bill provides that every injunction or restraining order must be specified in terms, thus outlawing the so-called "blanket injunction."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

COTTON PRICES UNSETTLED

Talk Around the Ring Suggested Reactionary Sentiment—Selling Was Restricted.

New York, June 5.—Cotton was more or less unsettled again today and talk around the ring suggested rather a reactionary sentiment, but selling was restricted by reports of an improved demand from spinners and aprehension that unsettled weather conditions would develop in the Southwest over Sunday. Closed steady net unchanged to 12 points higher.

Liverpool was closed today. There were a few old crop buying orders in the market from abroad, however, and the opening here was steady at an advance of 2 to 6 points.

Private predictions that the low barometer west of the belt would cause unsettled conditions and rain or showers in Texas, probably inspired much of the early local buying which sent prices about 8 to 10 points net higher, shortly after the call. The official forecast for generally clear weather in the western belt tonight and tomorrow was followed by a reaction of 3 or 4 points from the West, but the market wos soon steadied by reports that Carolina mills were buying today while some of the private map readers insisted that the outlook was for unsettled weather in the western belt before Monday. Prices sold about 10 to 14 points net higher in consequence, but met renewed profit-taking and later eased off from the best, with selling promoted by more favorable crop accounts from the Eastern belt. Rather bearish week-end figures although relatively small spinners' takings may have been accounted for by Whitsun-tide holidays abroad, and apprehensions that renewed efforts to secure legislation regulating cotton exchanges in Washington would result in a narrower market. Closing prices showed reactions of 6 to 7 points from the best.

Spot cotton, quiet. Middling uplands, 13.65; gulf, 13.90; no sales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

The carpet trade was advised by the largest domestic producers that one quality of Wilton Velvet rugs would be advanced $1.00 to a 9x12 basis on Wednesday next.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

The Market Has Been More or Less Unsettled During the Past Six Days of Trade.

New York, June 5.—The cotton market has been more or less unsettled and reactionary since the excited advance which carried new crop months into new high ground for the season immediately following the bullish condition report of Monday. Around 13 cents for December deliveries, heavy realizing was encountered, and while the sensationally low condition figures inspired very general predictions of ultimately higher prices the appearance of improving weather in the South encouraged considerable selling for a reaction.

Heavy offerings were well enough absorbed on the decline to demonstrate an important buying power and at a reaction of about $2.25 per bale, some traders thought they detected evidences of trade demand, chiefly from Southern spinners. Local sentiment as to the more immediate course of prices has become rather mixed, however, owing to more satisfactory crop accounts from the eastern belt one fact that make many consider prices over-high for this season of the year and a feeling that continued good weather for the balance of this month may work a very rapid improvement in the southwest.

Meanwhile the fear of inadequate supplies following an initial condition report fully 6 per cent below the ten-year average, even should the weather prove normal from now on is supposed to have been responsible for the increased activity in cotton goods circles, disposed traders to predict that a further in this cidection will bring spinners into the futures market for protection against forward sales while they also anticipate that any further cause for new crop complaint will stimulate another excited buying movement.

Liverpool, however, has not fully responded to American advances and it is claimed in bearish circles that foreign spinners are not inclined to accept the very small crop figures based on the government report on conditions as of May 25th.

UNDERCURRENT OF STRENGTH

Was Perceptable Throughout Yesterday's Trading on Stock Market —Inclined to Droop.

New York, June 5.—An under-current of strength was perceptible through today's listless trading in stocks. Foreign influence was unfavorable, and it was chiefly on account that the early market here was inclined to droop. London reported selling there by the continent, and in turn put out 10,000 shares here. Traders took little interest in the dealings and the market was quiet all day.

Evidence of underlying firmness lay in the strength of various specialities, such as the fertilizers, the local tractions and Wells-Fargo, which gained one to three points. Westinghouse was the one weak spot.

Foreign exchange rates were strong. Demand sterling touched $4,-8885, the high record for a long period, time money rates nevertheless were lower.

In bonds irregularity prevailed, with distinct weakness at times in the Rock Island, St. Louis and San Francisco and Western Maryland issues. Local traction bonds ruled higher, as did some of the more important convertible mortages.

Total sales of bonds par value $1,-957,000. U. S. Bonds unchanged on call.

BRADSTREET'S BUSINESS REVIE

New Yrk, June 5,—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Sentimentally and fundamentally trade conditions are better, though somewhat irregular. Jobbing trade outside of the Southeast has broadenende; intedest in fall and winter goods is gradually developing; there is more doing in retail lines; some improvement has appeared in connection with the collections; larger sales of Southern pig iron are noted; wool is active at string prices; textile mills are fairly well employed; crop conditions have improved; railway traffic is heavier.

"Finished steel, however, takes tone principally from sentiment not from actual growth in business, employment is irregular; collective industrial operations are relatively slow.

"For the week: Failures 238 against 215 last year; wheat exports 4,802,639 bushels against 7,561,259; bank clearings $3,231,327,000, an increase of 0.4 per cent over last year."

WANT COUNTY TO HELP VETERANS AT THEIR HOME.

So That They Will Not Have to Go To Soldiers' Home.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Newbern, N. C, June 5.—At a meeting of the Newbern Camp of Confederate Veterans a committee was appointed to go before the county Commissioners and request them to secure legislative enactment allowing them to give assistance to a Veteran when he has become unable to support himself, giving him a monthly allowance in lieu of being sent to the Soldiers Home, where he will not have the comfort of being in his own home and among old acquaintances.

The committee appointed for this work was composed of J. W. Biddle, Daniel Lane and J. F. Clark. The election of officers for the ensuing year was held and all of the officers were re-elected after which the Veterans marched to the old Dedmind wharf where they were served a delicious dinner by the Daughters of the Confederacy. This was thoroughly enjoyed by each member and many words of praise for the hostesses were heard.

Wilson, N. C., June 5.—Col. Henry Blount, much improved in health is spending a while with friends here and laughs heartily over the "obituaries" printed several weeks ago in a number of newspapers.

CLINTON CONTINUES GROWING

Evidences of Business Life and Thrift on Every Hand.

Clinton, N. C., June 5.—Clinton continues to grow. Several new buildings are in course of erection and when the Durham & Southern railroad gets here, the town is expected to go forward as never before. Clinton has as good and progressive citizenship as any town in Eastern Carolina. Her school building would be a credit to a town many times the size of Clinton. The town has well constructed business houses, two splendid banks, power plant, water, good hotel facilities, several sale and exchange stables, ample livery service, several saw mill plants and other enterprises. The writer sees no more evidence of business life and activity in any town he visits than in Clinton. Also her church and school facilities are better than those in the average town of this size. E. HUERTA AND VILLA TALK.

Rebel Chief Sends Dictator Daily Message—Somewhat Unconventional.

Vera Cruz, June 5.—President Huerta is in daily communication with Gen. Francisco Villa, according to a report brought here by a refugee, but the character of their communication is somewhat unconventional.

Gen. Villa, according to the report, recently sent one of his telegraphers within the Federal lines. He tapped a telegraph wire and sent to Huerta a message in which Villa called his enemy various unpleasant names and urged him not to hasten his departure from the capital as Villa soon would be in the capital, and was anxious to see him.

President Huerta, according to the report, appreciating the grim humor of the situation, gave orders that any similar messages should not be withheld, but delivered to him immediately. Since this order was issued, Villa, according to the refugee, has not disappointed Huerta one day. The daily receipt of these messages is said to have become a palace joke.

ly impossible to buy enough land to provide a playground, and it therefore was necessary to remove it to another location nearby, he said.

The uestion that confronted the board of education was what to do, and they took the only way out of the proposition, Mr. Carr stated, and that was to remove the Union school to the site occupied by the Hight School. Here there is plenty of ground and it is removed from a car line, so that there is no danger from that source, he stated.

The Board was also confronted by the problem in the High School that in another year the present building would be inadequate. Mr. Carr explained that it was a county school and has students not only from the city but from the county also. In this connection he spoke of the purpose of the Board of Education to make the curriculum of the High School broad enough so that it would prepare boys and girls to take their places in business lifee. While there are a great many demands and only a limited amount of money, he said, it was the purpose of the Board of Education to carry out the ideas of the people of the community as far as possible.

He felt it unnecessary to make a speech of introduction for Mr. Bailey, for he was known throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina as a leader in every movement that makes for the uplif and betterment of humanity.

"The Sceptre of Youth."

"The sceptre of Youth" was the subject of the address made by Mr. Bailey. He explained that he had been making commencement addresses for nearly a quarter of a century now and that he was getting to a point where he was beginning to look back in retrospect upon his life and as a consquence he had struck upon a new note in the talks the now made to young graduates.

He spoke of his high appreciation of the honor that had been conferred upon him in being asked to make the address on this occasion. He considered it an honor to share with the graduates in the glory of one of the past and happiest hours of their lives and especially a privilege to bring to them a message that might be of some help to them in their future careers.

"How are you going to discharge your possession of youth and years?" was the question he propounded to the young graduates as the most important one lying before them. "Not by making money, although that is good; not by winning fame nor by great achievements can you hope to be successful in life, but by bringing back to your creator at the end of the years—yourselves. A new life, a character, a new being, that is the noblest achievement in the world."

Should Not Drift.

The great call he said that comes to every boy and girl is to take their own individuality through the years and bring it back in the form of a noble life. He urged them not to drift down the tide of the years, but to a enthrone in their hearts and lives resident will and build it to a plan like an architect plans a house; to overcome difficulties as the great battleship plow through the ocean.

Those who fail declared the speaker, do so not because of a lack of brains, but it is more fundamental. The great difference in men is in their wills. At the outset of life it is fatal, he declared to take the shortest cut, to take the easiest way.

"Youth can have the world today for the asking; all things are in the possession of the boys and girls of today but tomorrow the world will be asked those who have become men and women what they can do," the speaker declared. "There comes a time when, like Ulysses, you will say 'we are not now that strength that once moved the world.'"

Infinite Capabilities.

The sceptre of youth is one of infinite capabilities and he proved that assertion by citing Roosevelt as an example. As a young man he developed tuberculoes, but he would not be downed and went West and developed such a strong robust body that even an assassin's bullet did not cause him serious injury.

Coming nearer home the speaker referred to Clarence Poe, the young editor of the Progressive Farmer, who had grown up on a Chatham county farm and came to Raleigh as a young man to take a small job. By dint of hard work in the world of hard knocks he has made himself a thinker, a man of ability and one fit to stand among the leaders of the world. Other examples of what persistence will do the speaker stated are Senator Simmons, Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Dr. Vann, president of Meredith College.

In conclusion, the speaker told the young graduates that not what they do but what they become will be the final test. He showed that how even in the world of business, character is the main test of stability and how even Morgan, the great financier, made that the main consideration in lending his millions.

PREACH AGAINST TOBACCO.

Reformed Presbyterian Church of Canada and America in Assembly.

Bloomington, Ind., June 5.—A committee report declaring that "labor has a right to organize, but not to use systematically secret methods or to enter a conspriracy to injure property," and "that arbitration is Christian," was adopted today by the synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church of the United States and Canada, in session here.

Further discussion of the temperance and tobacco questions was postponed until the next synod, but all pastors were urged to preach against the sin of using tobacco.

WILL BE SEVERAL DAYS.

Before Carranza Reaches Saltillo and Sends Answer to Mediators.

El Paso, Texas, June 5.—It probably will be several days before Gen. Carranza will arrive at Saltillo and issue his answer to the proposals of the mediation conference at Niagara Falls. His agents announced here today that Gen. Villa would leave Chihuahua City tomorrow to confer with Carranza at Torreon.

Carranza and Villa are expected to confer at Torreon about the relative positions of Villa, commanding the Northern military zone, and Gen. Natera, recently appointed by Carranza as head of a newly formed central zone, through which Villa was expected to move in his march toward the National capital.

Constitutionalist agents here intimate that the appointment of Natera had occasioned no friction.

TO PROTECT THE "BULL BAT."

Night Hawk is Deadly Enemy to the Boll Weevil in Cotton Sections.

Washington, June 5.—Strict game laws in Southern States for protection of the night hawk, or "bull bat", whose presence in cotton sections is declared to be of inestimable value as a check to boll weevil, through its feeding on moths, were recommended in a special bulletin issued today by the Department of Agriculture.

Vudor Porch Shades

Summer Pleasures without Summer Discomforts! Indoors it's sticky and moist. On the porch it's cool—when the Vudors are down.

Why not eat, sleep, live there this summer? Thousands do it. The cool air gives appetite and forces you to dreamless sleep because it bathes the nerves while you sleep. It cures them.

Vudor Porch Shades cost little. They give air but keep out glare. You can look out through Vudors, but not in through them. They last—they keep "that new look," for they're stained, not painted, nor dipped.
